Financial Aid Instructions for Nursing Program at Van Wert

Students Must Read and Sign Below:

1. When completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), students should list Federal School Codes for both Northwest State Community College 008677 and Wright State University 003078. Students should file their FAFSA electronically at www.fafsa.ed.gov using their federal PIN.
2. Financial aid will be processed by Wright State during terms when students are taking only Wright State courses. Students must notify Wright State and let them know that they will not be enrolled at Northwest State Community College so financial aid will be processed on a timely basis.
3. Financial aid will be processed by Northwest State Community College when students are taking courses concurrently at both schools. Student(s) must be registered for at least one course at Northwest State in order to meet this requirement. Students will need to complete the consortium agreement to include courses from both institutions. Consortium agreements are available online at Northwest State's web site www.northweststate.edu and must be completed 6 weeks prior to the start of classes.
4. Students are responsible for making sure that payment of tuition, fees and books is made to each school according to their respective payment deadlines. If financial aid is not process 6 weeks prior to the start of classes, the student may need to pay for courses, and get reimbursed with financial aid at a later date. Books at Wright State are paid for by the student.
5. Northwest State Community College will add together the credit hours taken at both schools to determine Pell Grant, Federal Supplement Opportunity Grant and /or Federal Student Loan eligibility. However, quarter credit hours taken through Wright State University will be converted to equivalent semester credit hours at Northwest State Community College for financial aid purposes. One quarter credit hour =0.667 semester credit hours. Therefore, a 3 credit hour quarter class will equal 2 semester hours at Northwest State Community College. (3 hours x .667=2) Students must be enrolled a combination of 6 semester hours to receive Federal Student Loans.
6. Students must complete the FAFSA each academic year. The new FAFSA year starts with summer enrollment.
7. Students who withdraw or stop attending all classes prior to the 60% point of the semester and who are receiving federal financial aid including grants and loans will be required to repay all unearned financial aid. This will result in owing money to the college.
8. It is the student's responsibility to provide Northwest State Community College with an official academic transcript of completed Wright State courses. This is to ensure that courses will properly apply to the Northwest State Community College degree.
9. Student(s) receiving financial aid from Northwest State must comply with Northwest's Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Policy. This policy can be found on www.northweststate.edu.
10. Student(s) are required to send an official transcript to Northwest State Community College's Financial Aid Office at the conclusion of each term that she/he was enrolled at Wright State University and had processed a consortium agreement. Failure to send official transcripts will delay or cancel aid for future terms.
11. I agree to authorize Wright State University to release any enrollment, academic, and tuition related information to Northwest State Community College for the contracted award year.

I understand the above policy regarding my consortium agreement with Wright State University.
